J-1 Exchange Visitor Application Procedure

All non-US citizens who do not have a current green card must apply to the U.S. Department of State's J-1 Visa Exchange Visitor Program. WFI partners with an independent non-profit organization, Experience International (EI), to provide authorized sponsorship for WFI Fellows. You can visit their website at: <http://www.expint.org/>. However, please note that you cannot apply directly to EI, nor can you go directly to the U.S. embassy in your country for a J-1 application or visa.

The following page contains a flow-chart outlining the steps that need to be taken for the visa program application process after you have been accepted into the WFI Fellowship Program. These steps must be followed in chronological order and must be completed in full. The application process from beginning to end takes approximately two months, and sometimes longer, to complete. We will assign a deadline for completion of the EI application after acceptance into the Fellowship Program.

Carefully read the J-1 Exchange Visitor Program Fees document, for the current fee structure. Exchange Visitor Program fees are paid directly to Experience International for them to sponsor your program and provide the documents necessary to apply for the J-1 Visa at the U.S. embassy or consulate in your country. This is a separate fee from the WFI Fellowship Program Fee, which is paid directly to the World Forest Institute. Refer to the current Fellowship Fee Payment and Refund Policy for information about the WFI Fellowship Fee.

Note: As noted in our refund policy, if you are unsuccessful at obtaining a J-1 visa, WFI will refund 100% of your Fellowship Fee. EI will refund a portion of their program fee to both you and WFI as noted in the J-1 Exchange Visitor Program Fees document.
